MSS 386/217-430

GENERAL CORRESPONDENCE arranged in chronological order, 1868-1926. (continued).

REEL 12

MISCELLANEOUS PAPERS (MSS 387-391)

- MSS 387 Edward Carpenter Centenary, 1944: correspondence and press cuttings, including letters from E M Forster and typescript of his broadcast, Leonard Green and others to Gilbert Beith.
- MSS 388 Minute book of the Edward Carpenter International Trust, 1931-34 and of the Edward Carpenter Memorial Fellowship 1934-55; with some additional notes and cuttings. (Presented by Mrs. F. Hancock, May, 1963).
- MSS 389 Photocopy of a letter of Edward Carpenter to Mrs. Doncaster, 18th March, 1902. (Original in the possession of Reading University Library – see letter from sub-librarian 24th October, 1964).
- MSS 390/1-73 73 Letters and postcards from Carpenter to George Clemas, 1916-27. (Purchased June, 1996).
 Clemas appears to have been a Board School teacher at Chertsey and at the time of the first letter, January 20th, 1916, had just joined up in the King's Royal Rifles. He was first a Lance Corporal and subsequently a Sergeant. It is clear that at the time of the first letter here they had already corresponded but had not met, which they did not do until just before Clemas's letter of 28th April, 1916. After the war Clemas had a spell at Cambridge and then went back to teaching. There are some letters from Clemas to Carpenter in the Carpenter Collection but none after 1918. The letters and postcards form of fairly continuous series except for the latter part of the time when Clemas was at Cambridge 1920-21 and again in 1922-3.
- MSS 390/74-80 Letters addressed to Clemas after Carpenter's death by Henry Salt (3) and E.M. Forster (3), 1929-30. Also a note from Shaw to the acting manager of the Maddermarket

MSS 391 Theatre, 1924.
Letter (1910) and two postcards (1917, 1919) from Carpenter to A T Bartholomew. Also sonnet on Beethoven. (Purchased Sept. 1971).

ADDITIONAL MATERIAL (MSS 392-402)

Added April-May, 1975

MSS 392 Two letters (on one sheet) from Carpenter to T D M Rorke about the latter's book A musical pilgrim's progress, together with a review of it in the New Statesman. Dec. 1921.

MSS 392 (a) Several items sent by Rorke to a Miss Sylvia Colenso, 1930s. (Possibly Carpenter's letter was passed on to her by Rorke).

MSS 393 Two postcards from Carpenter to C E young, arranging visits. 1914 and n.d.

Miscellaneous items

MSS 394-402
Later additions.
